Most Important; Only
One in District

The proposed state fish hatchery at Guilford state park, promised on at least six occasions by the state in addresses in this county the last four years, appears today to be a certainty.

Charles V. Truax, director of agriculture in an official bulletin issued from Columbus, announced that "later this hatchery, to be known as the Guilford hatchery, is to be constructed in Columbiana county."

It is probable that the department will await the completion of the highway and breastworks at the park before beginning the construction of the hatchery.

Project Long Sought
The definite step toward the project, incidentally, fulfills a promise Truax two years ago at the County Fish and Game Association. He said at that time that the county would build a hatchery.

More than five years ago, when the sportsmen of the county first began agitation for a state improvement in this county, a hatchery was suggested. Later it developed that a complete state park might be obtained and when plans for this assumed definite shape, the hatchery was brought into the limelight again as adjacent to the park.

Only One in District
The question was put to state fish game officials, and the county was assured action would be taken. Truax then brought a personal answer when he came to Guilford to make his address two years ago.

The hatchery will mean that the county will have one of the most important parks in the state. It will be the only hatchery for this part of the state, and is expected to be a success.

Preparations are being made for the improvement of roads to the park from main highways, and some improvements will be made within the next two or three years.

HIT BY TRUCK, CHILD INJURED

City Hospital With Fractured Skull; Is
Five Years Old

Dolores, five-year-old daughter of Mrs. C. W. Pittman, 613 Union st., North Side, Pittsburgh, Pa., was fatally injured at 11 o'clock today when she was struck by a truck on Franklin ave., while hurrying across the street to play with friends.

The accident occurred in front of the home of the girl's grandparents, Mrs. and Mr. J. K. Olinhausen, 166 Franklin ave., with whom she was playing. The name of the driver of the truck was not learned as the accident was not reported to police.

Stripping off the curb to cross the street, the girl ran directly in the path of the truck. She was knocked down, unconscious. Mrs. Olinhausen, who witnessed the accident, ran into the street and picked her up and rushed her to the City hospital where it is reported she is suffering from a fractured skull and in a serious condition.

The truck, Mrs. Olinhausen said, was going fast and she believed that the driver could have been avoided. The license number of the truck was T-108 62. Several persons, including Mrs. Olinhausen, witnessed the accident.

WINK FISH WIN
OLYMPIC FINALS

Olympic Swimming Stadium, Amsterdam, Aug. 11.—The Olympic swimming competition closed today with American victories in the two final and hotly contested events—the men and women's 100-meter free style swims.

The first of these was won by Johnny Weissmuller of Chicago in 54.4 seconds, a new Olympic record, while Miss Albina Otepovitch of Worcester, Mass., won the women's hundred in 1 minute 11 seconds.

Mrs. Betty Becker Pinkston of Detroit won the ladies' high-diving competition with a score of 31.60.

Baby Is Swimmer

Clara Margaret Maurer is 9 months old and already swims and dives with astounding expertness at Chicago beaches. Her mother, Mrs. Clara Maurer, is shown assisting her in a dive. Clara has two sisters who also learned to swim before they were a year old.

Photographers Ire Gene Who Seeks Solitude

Demands Publishers Recall Picture Takers And Reporters Who Are 'Snooping' About

South Bristol, Maine, Aug. 11.—Weakening under the glare of publicity's pitiless spotlight, Gene Tunney, in a formal statement to editors, asks that reporters and news photographers laying siege to the island summer home of his fiancée here be recalled.

The retired heavyweight champion waxed indignant at what he termed the "snooping" of the representatives of the press who have surrounded the island since the announcement of his engagement to "Polly" Lauder, $50,000,000 heiress.

Choosing his words carefully, Tunney sent the following statement to newspapers:

Has Nothing To Add
"It has always been a pleasure for me to meet and talk with responsible press representatives of my acquaintance.

"Folks whom I know will not represent things I may say or accredit me with words I have not uttered. However, in avoiding newspaper representatives on this occasion I did so merely because there was nothing I could add to the formal announcement made by Mrs. Lauder.

Seeks Restraining Order To Stop Sale Of Bar Fixture Set

A reminder of pre-Volstead days was brought to light in a petition filed in common pleas court at Lisbon Friday afternoon when a restraining order was sought to prevent the sale of a set of bar fixtures, claimed to be owned by the Crockery City Ice & Products Co., and A. E. Webber of East Liverpool.

The petition, filed by George D. Ingram, says that Ingram owns a building at 514 Market st., East Liverpool, and that in this building is a set of bar fixtures and a tile floor.

Ingram claims that the defendants are about to dispose of the bar fixtures, and he asks the court to enjoin the owners from either selling or removing the fixtures.

MRS. GRABLE IS DEATH'S VICTIM

Mrs. Jennie Grable, wife of Rev. M. J. Grable, of 1822 East 93rd st., Cleveland, formerly of Salem, died of heart trouble Friday afternoon.

The Grable family was widely known in Salem and vicinity, having lived here for many years, during which time Rev. Grable was pastor of the Christian church.

Surviving are her husband, three children, Erritt Grable, Max Grable and Mrs. Lee Shafer.

The funeral will be at 1:30 p. m., Monday, probably in Cleveland.

NOMINEE IS READY FOR NOTIFICATION

Traditional Custom Opens Republican Campaign For Presidency

Stanford University, Cal., Aug. 11.—A national pilgrimage was concentrating on this modest university town this morning to participate in the formal notification of Herbert Hoover as the Republican nominee for president.

All America was represented in the trek to the Republican mecca but the whole Golden State apparently sought to be present at the moment when the first Californian in history formally accepts a presidential nomination.

There were indications the notification crowd would total 100,000 persons and the huge Stanford stadium can amply accommodate such a crowd.

Many Special Trains
There were special trains from San Francisco and Los Angeles and midway points. There were streams of motor cars reported enroute last night from more distant points. There were crowds of visitors from the surrounding states. The little university town was swamped with Hooverites but thoroughly enjoying its hour in the sun.

The Republican party lent dignity and solemnity to the occasion as it followed the quadrennial and traditional custom of informing its candidate about an eight-weeks-old event.

A committee on notification, named by the Kansas City convention, gathered here in solemn conclave to formally notify Hoover. It represented every state in the union and the insular possessions, which participated in the convention. Senator George H. Moses of New Hampshire, permanent chairman at Kansas City, headed the delegation.

Only One Hour Ceremony
It was Moses' duty to tell Hoover, in the presence of his colleagues, that the Republican party has chosen him to be their standard-bearer in the coming campaign and Hoover has prepared a 7,110 word (Continued on Page 4)

POSTMASTER AT GREENFORD HELD

Harry J. Harmon Admits Taking $500; Jailed In Default of Bond

Harry J. Harmon, acting postmaster of Greenford, plead guilty before United States Commissioner Max Brunswick at Youngstown late Friday to charges of embezzling $500 in cash from the Greenford post-office.

He was bound over to the federal grand jury at Cleveland and held in jail in default of $1,000 bond.

Harmon was arrested late Friday by Charles W. Beck, deputy United States marshal on orders of H. W. Tavenor, United States postal inspector, when he came to Youngstown postoffice on business.

He had been acting postmaster from April 1 to Aug. 7.

Harman had been working in the postoffice for about a year, and had worked under W. I. Hahn, postmaster, whose death occurred some weeks ago.

He is unmarried and made his home with his father, Fred Harmon. They have lived in Greenford for some years. He operated a gas filling station in connection with the post office.

Other members of the crew reached shore safely.

Marimba Band To Close Chautauqua Program

Classical and Popular Selections Will Be Played by Central American Musicians

G. E. Solis and his Marimba band will present the closing program tonight at the Salem Chautauqua.

This band is composed of musicians from Guatemala and they play their native instrument, the marimba.

These men are among the best of their kind in this country today, and just before joining the Redpath circuit in June, had been playing in a large hotel in Miami, Fla.

The Hurlado brothers and Mr. Solis comprise the band. The program starts at 9 p. m.

Program in Two Parts
Their program is divided into two parts, the first part being given over to classical selections such as the Hungarian Rhapsody, the overture from William Tell and others.

The second part is given to popular numbers which the audience selects. Community singing is one of the features of this part.

Junior Town presented its Minstrel show this afternoon. Last year due to conditions here there was no Junior Town.

Pigeon Act Friday
The contract for next year is progressing slowly, only 117 guarantors out of the required 200 being obtained thus far.

The entertainment at the chautauqua Friday afternoon was an unusual one. Frank H. Hollman exhibited 25 varieties of pigeons, noted for their beautiful plumage. These birds are acrobats of the pigeon world.

"Tommy" Makes Hit
Miss Florence McGee, who played "The Patsy" last year, again pleased a large audience Friday evening when she played the part of Marie Thurber in the comedy, "Tommy," presented at the chautauqua tent.

Marie had always been told what to do, when to do it, where to go and what to wear by her parents but when it came to choosing the man she was to marry, she decided for herself. Marie's uncle, David Tuttle, helped her to realize that Tommy Mills was the one she loved most. Henry Richard, played the part of Bernard, the rival suitor.

DeLancy Cleveland took the part of Tommy. Aphie James was Mrs. Thurber and Clarence Bellair was Mr. Thurber.

NOTED GANGSTER IN YOUNGSTOWN SLAIN BY RIVAL

Tony Caputo's Career In Crime Ended by Deadly Hail Early Today

Youngstown, Aug. 11.—Sudden death, spouting from the revolver of a rival bootlegger, ended the eventful career here of Tony Caputo, 29-year-old gangster shortly after midnight.

John Preston, 40, another veteran of the bootleg racket here, with whom Caputo engaged in the gun battle at 25 Holmes which resulted in his death, is in St. Elizabeth's hospital with a bullet hole in his leg.

The crisis in the war between the rivals in the bootleg game in Youngstown came when Caputo made a midnight call on Preston at Preston's home. Caputo carried two revolvers, Preston told police after the fatal shooting.

At 12:40 a. m., loafers in the street heard the spat of automatic pistols in Preston's room, over a Holmes st. paint shop. They moved back into doorways and alleys. After the "spatting" stopped one of the loafers ran for a telephone.

Caputo's car, the engine still running, stood three or four feet from the curb less than 100 feet from Spring Common. It looked to police as if Tony hadn't expected to stay long.

The officers found Caputo crumpled on the floor near the door of Preston's room with two bullets in his head and two more in his right wrist. Caputo could shoot equally well with either hand, altho he was known by police to favor his right.

The third shot, which probably caused instant death, was fired with deadly accuracy into the left side of his head. The fourth was timed to strike him in the right side of the head, just above the eye as he whirled around.

When police arrived Preston was sitting on a chair holding his leg up for the officers to see. "He tried to get me but I got him first. He came in with two guns to get me but I took one away from him," he said.

That is his story and he told police that he intends to stick to it. It was self-defense, he said. Hospital attendants say he will recover. A policeman is standing by his cot until he does recover.

FLOODS FOLLOW IN HURRICANE'S WAKE IN SOUTH

Georgia and Florida Now Face High Waters As Gale Turns East

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 11.—Additional damage to private property and public utilities threatened today as floods followed in the wake of the West Indian hurricane that hurled itself across the southern part of Florida into the Gulf of Mexico, then curved into South Georgia and finally is blowing itself back into the Atlantic.

Residents in Macon were warned of a flood on the Ocmulgee river, following 8 1/2 inches of rain in 15 hours. Many small streams went out of their banks and the Ocmulgee will reach 14 feet today and perhaps go higher. The Central of Georgia railroad recutted trains because of washouts.

Augusta Hit Hard
The storm did considerable damage at Augusta, where high winds wrecked small houses, ruined crops and killed livestock. The wire companies suffered heavily but the damage on the whole was not as severe as that suffered in east coast and south central cities hit by the storm.

Vessels in the harbor at Charleston, S. C., were buffeted by a 40-mile gale, and vacationers in flimsy beach cottages there were forced to leave them in fear that the gale might blow them away.

Other south Georgia towns reported heavy damage to highways from the torrential rains, including Gough, Blythe and Ellenon.

Red Cross In Charge
Two plants of the Florida Power company at Inglis, Fla., on the West Coast, above Tampa, were threatened by the swollen Withlacoochee river, and officials there were prepared to open flood gates to relieve the pressure.

The Red Cross had assumed charge of a number of families made destitute by the hurricane at Jupiter, Fla. Relief also was extended to sufferers at Fort Pierce, Vero Beach and Stuart, which were hardest hit on the east coast.

Okeechobee City was flooded by waters from Lake Okeechobee but the waters are gradually receding, and danger there was believed past.

Five persons were injured at Batesburg, S. C., last night when a home was destroyed by the storm.

MANY CONTESTS ON REPUBLICAN COUNTY BALLOT

Only One Contest. That For Sheriff, On Dem. Ticket at Primary

MUCH INTEREST IN STATE RACES SEEN

G. O. P. Sheriff, Clerk of Courts, Prosecutor, Probate Fight Keen

One of the hottest Republican primaries in years will come to an end next Tuesday in Salem and Columbiana county when voters will select their party nominees for the fall election, and a record vote is anticipated.

While the Republican ticket is full of contests, and most of them can be characterized as very close, the Democrats face a most mild primary with but one contest, that for nomination for sheriff.

County and district contests on the Republican ticket are for state senator, state representative, probate judge, county clerk of courts, sheriff, prosecuting attorney and coroner.

Interest In State Ticket
Considerable interest, also, is being taken in both the Republican and Democratic state primaries. Since the county is normally Republican, this interest centers on the primary of this party, and particularly on the gubernatorial race between Begg, Cooper and Turner.

Three Republicans seek the two places on the party ticket for state representative, Mrs. H. Marshall Cronin, East Liverpool; R. D. Smith, Salineville, and W. H. VanFossan, Lisbon, incumbent.

Two are in the district fight for nomination for the sole state senator post, and both of them are incumbents, Harry M. Carpenter and Earl R. Lewis. The district will have but one senator next term, instead of two. Carpenter is a Steubenville man, while Lewis is from St. Clairsville.

Four Seek Sheriff Post
Four want to be the party's choice for probate judge, Frank Ballantine, Salem; Homer A. Hammond, Columbiana; Charles A. White, Lisbon, and Lodge Riddle, of Lisbon, the incumbent.

There are four in the race for sheriff, none of them the incumbent, George Wright, who is retiring. The four are Lawrence Kindsavater, Lisbon, deputy under Wright; William J. Barlow, East Liverpool; Thomas H. Cartwright, Salineville, and J. E. Armstrong, East Liverpool.

In the contest for clerk of courts' nomination three are listed, John A. (Continued on Page 4)

Moore Tells Why Begg Is Not Endorsed

Columbus, Aug. 11.—With Ohio's primary election only three days away, the fervor marking one of the warmest political campaigns in the history of the Buckeye state continued unabated throughout the state today.

Congressman James T. Begg, Sandusky, and Attorney General Edward G. Turner, candidates for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, are scheduled to deliver addresses at Toledo Monday night. Myers V. Cooper, Cincinnati, also an aspirant for the G. O. P. nomination for governor, expects to radio-cast his talk at Cincinnati Monday night over WLW's wave length.

Begg's itinerary included speeches at Ashtabula this afternoon and at Cleveland tonight. Turner was to talk at Cleveland this afternoon and tonight while Cooper was to broadcast a talk from Cincinnati, over the wave length of WKRC, and then go to Dayton for a meeting tonight.

Moore Kaps Begg
Publicity was given today to the reply of Supt. E. J. Moore, Ohio Anti-Saloon League, to a letter addressed to Moore by A. R. Johnson, Ironton, who took exception to the action of league officials who endorsed Cooper and failed to endorse Begg's candidacy for governor.

"I appreciate very much your personal feeling toward Mr. Begg, who was your school superintendent years ago, and I think if Mr. Begg of the days when he was superintendent of schools in Ironton was running for governor there could be no objection whatever made, and your statement that he has actually lived a life as dry as yours" would be correct, if based on his life in Ironton those years," Moore wrote Johnson.

"Unfortunately, and no one regrets it more than I, he has evidently failed to maintain that high ideal of personal life during these years," Moore continued.

PLANES TO LINK NATIONS

Less than a year after Colonel Lindbergh's non-stop Washington-to-Mexico City flight, the air mail prepares to follow him across the border. Postoffice departments of the Mexican and the United States governments have fixed tentatively on September as the month in which to start the new international service.

Thus the current year should see creation of an air mail route 2,800 miles in length, the longest in North America. Cities which will be stations on the United States-Mexico service are: Boston, New York, Washington, Richmond, Atlanta, Birmingham, Mobile, New Orleans, Houston, perhaps San Antonio, Laredo, Nuevo Laredo, where the Mexican division begins, Monterey, San Luis Potosi and Mexico City.

This service will bisect North America just as the New York and San Francisco air line cuts a cross section of the United States. In about 48 hours planes will pass from the land of baked beans to the land of chili con carne, from the seaside metropolis of New York to the mountain valley metropolis of Mexico City, from the heat of Washington and Richmond to the cool breeze of San Luis Potosi, from the cotton fields and cane breaks of the south to the orange orchards and corn and wheat fields of the southern republic.

Mexico must build an entirely new air route over its section of the division, and the United States will have to extend its present service.

THE DEATH TOLL GROWS

Statistics prepared by the American Railway association shows that an average of six persons a day are being killed at unguarded crossings. These are startling figures. The amazing thing in connection with them is that the public apparently doesn't care a whoop for the lesson which such gruesome statistics should provide. Beat it a mile, seems to be the slogan, rather than live and learn.

For the first four months of the current year there were 1,826 deaths reported as a result of grade crossing accidents, as compared with 1,744 for the corresponding period of 1927. This is an increase of 80. The number injured in such accidents reached a total of 2,973.

Considering that virtually every railroad crossing today is guarded by constantly flickering lights, that bells ring when trains are anywhere near, that in most instances the crossings are unobstructed as to view in both directions, this record of culpable carelessness is most astonishing. There is no lack of warning signs for public guidance, so recklessness and a disregard for open-eyed diligence on the part of motorists must be held responsible for the great majority of these tragedies.

Lightning to thousands of grown-ups is an awesome thing. They are deathly afraid of it. It is the terror of any storm for them. But these same persons face a far greater danger every time they drive over the highways. Yet of the deadly grade crossing they have no horror at all. The problem, apparently, is one for the psychologist.

What Others Say

AMERICAN OLYMPIC VICTORS

The margin of 71 points by which the American team won the Olympic track and field championship was larger, probably, than its most ardent followers had hoped for. One reads, however, into comments of American writers both in Amsterdam and at home a feeling of disappointment that so many points were won in the field events and so few on the track. The Associated Press correspondent says the American championship was won "only at the expense of the biggest blow to American foot-racing prestige ever sustained on an international field." From this and similar comments the inference is likely to be drawn that the races are the important part of the meet, and the field events a necessary and unimportant appendage.

From the point of view of the spectator that is approximately true.

There is little pleasure in watching a high or broad jumper, however skillful he may be. In the discuss and hammer throws there is perhaps even less. The pole vault alone of the field events is spectacular.

But despite the lack of public interest in the field events, proficiency in them is given the same weight in school and college meets as proficiency in the runs and dashes. And if, as this year's contests seemed to indicate, American supremacy in athletic events is based upon strength and skill rather than speed that fact affords no valid basis for regret.

There is credit enough for the American team in the victory it won. And to the foreign athletes who were better than our own in the races and games in this country will extend congratulations. If they were not superior to our own in some field of athletic endeavor there would be little interest in the Olympic games—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

HOW TO USE $5,000,000

To rescue beauty from decay is a gracious thing to do. To perpetuate monuments to historic happenings which are creditable, is a good use of wealth.

In restoring the old town of Williamsburg, Va., John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is doing that. The old colonial houses with their wide chimneys and fan-windowed doors were rapidly going to ruin. The $5,000,000 donated has completed their accurate and complete restoration. The city which was once the seat of government of this young republic is to be reproduced just as it was 100 years ago. The old Capitol building will be rebuilt. Even the pavements and street lamps will be made to look as they did in the old days.

Mr. Rockefeller has practically bought the town. To permit of the war munitions era, is being erased. The buildings of historic William and Mary college are also being restored. Families or descendants living in the quaint old homes are given the right to occupy as long as they wish free of any cost. They are asked only to permit the structures to be put into perfect order as to repair and furnishings.

When Mr. Rockefeller shall have completed his work at Williamsburg he will have done a thing unique. It is something more than setting stone monuments to mark spots. To be able to step into an environment which architecturally and in other ways is perfect of its time, and then to see the actual historic places where important words were said and immortal documents were signed, will be an inspiring experience for Americans.—Columbus Citizen.

PROMOTE DEPUTY SHERIFF KINDESVATER TO SHERIFF, 1874

LOOK AT JOB'S CASE WITH "THOSE BOILS"

By Royal S. Copeland, M. D.
United States Senator from New York, Former Commissioner of Health, New York City

When the devil wanted to try the patience of a good man by afflicting his body with disease, he selected as his agent a germ called the "staphylococcus." And ever since the days of Job innumerable members of the human family can testify to the fact that it was a well directed choice.

A boil seems a very small thing when it is on the other fellow. But when you yourself have been selected by the staphylococcus as the object of its attention, the boil at once becomes a very annoying, and perhaps an extremely painful thing.

Like all other germs, the one which is responsible for boils is powerless to harm the human being until it finds a vulnerable point of attack. In order to do its work the germ must penetrate the tissues of the body. Simply for it to alight on the skin is insufficient. It must be rubbed in or scratched in, or in some other way made to penetrate into the substance of the skin. This is why boils usually come on the parts which are rubbed by the clothing, such as the neck or the buttocks.

Even with the aid of the clothing, or some other agent to assist the entrance of the germ into the skin, the staphylococcus cannot thrive and do its work unless it finds favorable soil condition. That is, boils won't develop in a body that is in a perfectly healthy condition. Therefore, the really effective way to avoid boils is not merely to dodge the germ, but to keep the body in such condition that the germ cannot thrive even if it finds a lodging there.

When the first sign of a boil appears, it may sometimes be aborted by the application of iodine or other strong antiseptic. If this treatment is unsuccessful and the boil develops, repeated applications of hot water or of camphor may reduce the inflammation. It is usually necessary, however, to incise the boil in order to promote the drainage.

The worst thing about a boil is that when once the infection gets into the system it seldom lets the victim off with the first boil. "Crops" of boils are likely to follow. Should a second boil appear, the general health should be investigated. The kidneys should be examined and the bowels watched. When a tendency to boils has shown itself, pastry and very rich foods should be avoided and a simple diet should be taken. Fresh air, sunshine, lots of water to drink and daily exercise to the point of perspiration are essential. Fresh lemonade or lemon juice every day is good.

For a succession of boils the doctor should always be consulted. He will tell you if it is advisable to have a vaccine made to control the disease.

AIRPLANE WILL DICTATE FUTURE ARCHITECTURE

University of Illinois Professor Predicts Such Will Be Case

Urbana-Champaign, Ill., Aug. 11.—Architecture of the future will be governed more by the increasing use of the airplane than by any other one factor.

This is the opinion voiced today by Prof. L. H. Provine, head of the department of architecture of the University of Illinois here. The view of Professor Provine is based on the demand the airplane makes for sufficient space for both handling and taking off.

In spite of the fact that automobiles are becoming more numerous every day, modern architecture will not be affected by them nearly as much as by the airplane, Provine said.

Automobile Problem
"Parking of automobiles is one of the great problems of the architect in planning a new building today. It is a real problem. While the ramp system where the cars are transported from floor to floor up and down inclined driveways, is in favor at present, these ramps take up so much valuable space that it may become impracticable to use them in the future except in garage buildings. The cost of elevators is high, both in respect to initial installation and operation, yet they do conserve space and their value may become greater. Elevators are slow, however, in handling automobiles during rush hours.

"On the other hand, with the increase in the use of airplanes by private individuals for business and pleasure, by corporations for the transportation of light deliveries, and the mail and express trains, something must be done to facilitate their landing almost at will. The tops of buildings are the logical place in crowded cities for the landing stages, because in this day of great speed distance from the landing field to the center of the business district must be cut as much as possible. Therefore, it would seem that the tops of the buildings that today are just so much waste space must be utilized for this purpose.

Landing Fields
"The cost of building landing fields on the tops of buildings will not be great. A certain amount of zoning in the downtown sections will secure a certain amount of uniformity in the height of buildings so that their tops will be of the same level. With a stretch of roof height of even elevation, the cost of building a landing field would not be great. The construction of the building to hold up the field would not be expensive nor would the building footings need be materially increased in size.
"The platforms would in all probability be constructed at a uniform height for a given locality depending upon the nature of the business houses housed within the area involved. Also streets can be bridged at the roof lines of adjoining buildings thus permitting runways of any desired length," he concluded.

Barley Ranks First In Crop Increases

The United States will this year harvest about 2 per cent greater acreage of crops than last year, it is estimated by the rural economics department of Ohio State university. To Ohio farmers, the most important increases in the crop acreage are the gains of 4 per cent in corn; 30 per cent in barley; 9 per cent in potatoes and 18 per cent in tobacco.
Ohio's crop acreage increases are in line with the trend in the country as a whole. The state will harvest corn from an acreage 8 per cent greater than last year's, barley from an acreage 96 per cent greater than last year's; potatoes from a 12 per cent greater acreage and tobacco from a 50 per cent greater acreage.

Decreases in acreage in the country as a whole include a drop of 4 per cent in the hay acreage, of 1.5 per cent in the wheat acreage and 4 per cent in the rye acreage. Ohio decreases are much sharper in wheat, which dropped 45 per cent under last year's figure, and in hay, 13 per cent.
Influence of the winterkilling of wheat in the increased acreage of substitute crops, is clearly evident. It is pointed out by the rural economics department that the acreage will not determine the production, which is still dependent upon weather conditions for many of the crops which are listed.

San Francisco—Grass and brush fires, which this far this week have caused two deaths and considerable property loss, kept fire fighters busy in several districts in the far west recently. None of the fires were reported out of control.

Propose Memorial To Former Kaiser

Berlin, Aug. 11.—A national monument to the former kaiser, showing him "high on horseback, with the fieldmarshal's staff in his hand," is proposed by the Reichsboten, the organ of the German evangelical church.
The paper proposes that the monument be financed by a national collection and that it be presented to the former kaiser on his seventieth birthday on January 27, next year.
An elaborate birthday celebration program is already being prepared.

Ban Letter Writing At Sidewalk Cafes

Paris, Aug. 11.—Drink your coffee here, but do your writing elsewhere! Parisian sidewalk cafes along the boulevards are enforcing this rule during the height of the tourist season when tables are at a premium and waiting lists are permanent.
Time was when you could plant yourself on the terrace of any Parisian cafe and calmly proceed to do your day's correspondence. Writing materials were furnished free of charge and the desk space privilege only cost you the price of a stark black coffee.

Put In "Solitary"

Marysville, Aug. 11.—Sadie Fennough, 37, and Pearl Laney, are being held in solitary confinement at the Ohio reformatory here today, following their capture Thursday in a woods near Urbana by officers from Champaign county. The women escaped while working in a field.

Held For Bigamy

Benton Harbor, Mich., Aug. 11.—Willard Osgood Twombly, inventor, said by his wife, Helen, to have made as high as $40,000 in one month, is in jail today unable to furnish $5,000 bail to guarantee his appearance in court to answer bigamy charges.

For The Hoover cleans faster—cleans more easily—cleans more thoroughly. Repeated tests demonstrate unmistakably this super-efficiency. Under actual home conditions The Hoover removes more dirt per minute than other cleaners.

Its ability to remove the most dirt per minute is due to its remarkable cleaning principle—exclusive with products of The Hoover Company—"Positive Agitation." It adds to sweeping, which removes the lint and thread, and suction, which gathers up the surface dust, a deep-beating which flutters out the heavy low-clinging grit which other methods fail to reach. In addition it lifts and straightens the rug nap and restores the brightness of the rug colors.

Why not have a demonstration in your home of The Hoover's ability to remove more dirt per minute? Because d.p.m. represents the real gauge of electric cleaning capacity, you should have this test before buying any electric cleaner. Telephone us today.

Cash prices: Model 700 Hoover, $75. Model 543, $59.50. Dusting tool, $12.50. Floor Polisher, $7.50. Easy payments if desired. Only $6.25 down. Liberal allowance on your old machine.

LEAPS TO DEATH INTO CUYAHOGA DUE TO HEALTH

Cleveland, Aug. 11.—While a crowd of horror-stricken spectators looked on, a middle-aged woman jumped to her death from the central span of the high level bridge into the Cuyahoga river here today.

The body was identified by a note pinned to the victim's dress reading, "I am Mrs. Gora Blanton." The note also said she was despondent over ill health.

A man at the water's edge swam into the river and recovered the body. Several persons who saw the woman climb over the railing of the bridge rushed to that point, but were too late to deter her leap.

CHURCH DEBATE MAY BE HALTED

Trustees May Not Permit Dr. Straton To Meet Smith In Edifice

New York, Aug. 11.—Trustees of Calvary Baptist church, of which Dr. John Roach Straton is pastor, threaten to prevent the debate between the pastor and Gov. Al Smith at least as far as holding it in the church is concerned.

This was made known today by O. M. Johnson, one of the trustees, who said the question had been discussed informally among the church officers, but that no action yet had been taken. He added:

"I do not care to state my position at this time but I feel certain the trustees will not permit the church to be used in this fashion."

Other trustees are reported to have expressed similar views.

Dr. Straton let it be known that he has dropped his demand that the debate be repeated in St. Patrick's cathedral. He said:

"I want to debate. I'll meet Gov. Smith before election day if we have to debate in the middle of Columbus circle."

Dr. Straton has been deluged with letters since his attack on the governor, some of praise, others of denunciation. Today he will receive one from E. J. Williams, a member of his church, resigning his membership because of the pastor's attack on Smith.

BODIES OF PAIR FOUND IN HOUSE

Believe Man Shot Woman, Then Killed Himself In Toledo Home

Toledo, Aug. 11.—The bodies of Wallace Madden Stickle, 34, and Mrs. Sophia Neubert, about the same age, were found in a house under construction here today by carpenters reporting for work.

The coroner's office stated that Stickle evidently had shot and killed the woman and then ended his own life.

Three bullets entered Mrs. Neubert's body, one the head, another the chest and a third the abdomen. There was a bullet hole through Stickle's temple. Four cartridges of an automatic pistol found nearby had been discharged.

The coroner's office said that Mr. Neubert's husband recently had filed suit for divorce.

Carpenter's Ability Recognized By Senate

Harry M. Carpenter of Steubenville is a candidate for nomination for re-election to the senate in the coming election, and if the voters of his part of the state are not inappreciative of what their energetic and skillful senator has done for it, he will be sent back to the senate.

During his last term in the house, Carpenter was chairman of the finance committee and has been chairman of the senate finance committee both terms he has served there—certainly testimony showing that ability was recognized in him by his colleagues. Probably not in the history of the state has that experience been duplicated by any person.

FINAL WEEK OF CITY LEAGUE TO START MONDAY

Mullins Looks Like Sure Winner Last Half But Others Press Hard

Going into the last week of the playground baseball league, the Mullins "mush" ballers are on their way to the second half championship.

The body-makers have only two more games to play, their disputed game with the Electric Furnace being a regularly scheduled game and one of the contestants for the second half championship, the City Hall.

Both of these should be wins for the Mullins, who have the best fielding team in the league, and pitchers, and several of the league's leading sluggers.

Monday's game between the Electric Furnace and Mullins should be a blood as both teams are out to win, although the win for the Mullins will not change its position in the league greatly. Should the Mullins team lose it will mean they are out of the championship play-off for the championship, unless the Salem China loses a game, which it seems now won't.

Standing May Change

Many changes are still due in the league standing despite the closeness to the season's close. Mullins and the Pottery are in the fight for the championship, and the Mullins, Collegians and Electric Furnace are leading the battle for the runners-up position. Fighting hard to keep out of the cellar are the Pottery, City Hall, and Methodist.

Both league games scheduled for Monday and Friday this week were postponed on account of rain and were played off some evening this week with a regularly scheduled game, giving the fans two more double headers before the season ends. The postponed games are Electric Furnace vs. Collegians and Pottery vs. City Hall.

Rain last night kept the fans from viewing what might have been a real pitcher's duel between Fireman Tom Hagan and Harry Vincent, the league's leading pitcher. Hagan has yet to win his first game in the league, but the defeats have been his fault. He is leading the league in strikeouts.

Three Big Battles

Three feature games, including Monday's Electric Furnace-Mullins game are billed for next week. They are: Thursday, Pottery vs. Electric Furnace and Friday, Collegians vs. Mullins.

Thursday a battle to climb out of eighth position will be staged between the Methodists and Federals. Wednesday Mullins is billed to beat the City Hall still deeper into the cellar.

The M. Kelley, manager of the league is hoping to have a banquet at the Memorial building at the end of the season for all teams in the league at which championship trophies will be awarded.

The standings at the beginning of the last week of the league follow:

SPITBALL TRIO WEEK'S HEROES

Grimes, Quinn, Mitchell, They Are the Hurlers Who Are Going Big

New York, Aug. 11.—Three veteran spitball pitchers—baseball's vanishing Americans—are keeping their teams in the thick of the fight as the rival contenders battle down the stretch on the road to pennantville. They are Burleigh Grimes of the Pirates, with 20 victories; the venerable John Pincus Quinn, who has won 15 games for the Athletics; and Clarence Mitchell, who saved the Cardinals from utter rout during the past week by besting the Giants and the Pirates.

Mitchell won a 2 to 1 duel from Fred Russell of the Pirates yesterday in 12 innings and Quinn held the Senators to four hits, whitewashing them 8 to 0. Both victories proved to be as timely as a cork-screw at a banquet since the Giants and Yankees also won. The Cards remained four games in front of the Giants and the Athletics stayed within 4½ games of the Yanks.

After holding the cards to five hits in 11 innings, Russell was beaten by Hefey's double and Wilson's single. St. Louis snapped Pittsburgh's winning streak of eight games, and faced the Cubs today with renewed confidence.

The Yanks got only six hits to Boston's 11, but George Pipgras bore down like a rookie dentist in the pinches and hung up his 19th victory of the season, 5 to 2, with the aid of Gehrig's homer.

Fred Lindstrom of the Giants, a leading candidate for the most valuable player prize in the National League this season, drove in five runs with a homer and a single as the McGrawmen outslugged the Phillies, 8 to 4.

Dazzy Vance registered his fifth straight win, his ninth triumph in his last ten starts and his 15th victory of the season in pitching Brooklyn to a 5 to 1 win over Boston. He yielded only five hits and fanned seven batters, raising his season's total for strikeouts to 139.

Detroit jumped ahead of Washington to sixth place by beating Cleveland, 8 to 7. A five-run rally by the Indians in the ninth just fell short.

Clancy's double with the bases loaded featured as the White Sox trimmed the Browns, 5 to 3, and established a clear title to fourth place.

Arabia and Afghanistan are the two countries where the population is wholly Mohammedan.

Heeney Says In English Paper That Foul Blow Injured Eye

BY DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, Aug. 11.—Charging that he was "fouled miserably" by Gene Tunney when he sustained the famous injury to his eye in the eighth round, Tom Heeney boldly attacked the sportsmanship of the victorious and now retired champion in an interview appearing in the London Daily Express, a copy of which reached the writer today.

The story is headed, "Was Heeney Fouled?" and then goes on to give a more or less affirmative answer to its own question.

The interviewer, himself a ringside observer, hints rather strongly that he believes a foul was committed and quotes to kindred effect several authorities, including Eddie Kane, manager of the lightweight champion, Sammy Mandell, Kane, Heeney, and now retired champion in an interview appearing in the London Daily Express, a copy of which reached the writer today.

"My eye was cut by some kind of a punch that was not natural. The upper eyelashes went down behind my lower lid and every time I blinked my bad eye caused tears to flow from both eyes.

"My nose started to bleed after my eye was out of action. I was almost hopelessly handicapped but I thought I could have gone beyond the 11th round because I had recovered so quickly."

Insofar as the writer's observations were concerned, Heeney may be right about this last contention. But every indication is that he is all wrong if he really thinks Gene Tunney had the slightest intention of damaging his eye except by a legitimate punch. Of course, I never swung the punch nor felt its effect; so, technically, I suppose I can't pretend to be an authority on its intent.

Officially, however, I gained my own impressions, which, briefly were these:

Mere Poke Did Damage

Tunney, using a shift, led with a right, as he so often did during the fight. It wasn't much of a punch, being neither swing nor straight right. It was more of a poke than anything else.

Would Sell Property

An action to sell real estate to pay debts has been filed in common pleas by W. F. MacQueen, as administrator under the will of the late Mary P. Foust, and against Clara M. J. Williams and Mary C. Speedy, the latter residing at Leontia. The petition asks authority of court to sell lot 4 in block 2 at Leontia for this purpose.

Seeks Recovery

C. S. Ward as administrator of the estate of James A. Ward has filed an action in common pleas court against George J. Legler and others to recover $1,320.73 and interest claimed to be due on a series of notes dated at Lisbon, Feb. 25, 1918. Thirteen causes of action have been recited in the petition that has been filed by L. M. Kyes of East Palestine as counsel for the plaintiff. To secure the notes a mortgage deed was given on a farm of 26 acres in section 17, Middleton township. Heeney immediately broke ground to clutch his damaged eye and never was the same thereafter. It happens to be my opinion that, except for this incident, the fight would have gone the limit of 15 rounds but that is unimportant now and probably never was anything else. So much for optical evidence.

Tactically there wasn't the slightest reason for Tunney to try for an unfair advantage. He had had every advantage as it was. From the fourth round to the eighth, he outscored the challenger by two to one and even those in Heeney's corner must have realized that their man didn't have a chance. It is, then, to be supposed that a man, knowing that victory was certain, would go deliberately out to foul a defeated rival? This isn't being done, even by notoriously unethical fighters, and Tunney was many miles from being one of these. His record, in fact, is immaculate in this respect.

His attitude after the injury occurred also spoke for the sincerity of his good intentions. Legally, he was at liberty to have at the injured man, pronto, and do his worst. Instead, he was all for ethics, retreating a respectful distance and watching anxiously for many moments while waiting for Heeney to recover. It simply wasn't his fault that Heeney never did.

IT'S not necessary to drive a car which sounds like a machine gun.

The rat-a-tat-tat of those motor knocks on hills, with its depressing loss of power and its shifting of gears, is absolutely unnecessary.

Put FREEDOM Ethyl Gasoline in your tank. It's a balanced blend of an effective anti-knock compound with a fine grade of gasoline.

Today's high speed motors need it. Today's crowded traffic on hills and on city streets recommends it. Try it—today.

Gray's Cowboy Band Comes To Grand For Three Days

Thomas Meighan and Milton Sills play the leading roles in the two main features scheduled for the State and Grand next week. Meighan plays in "The Racket," a story of political corruption, while Sills is the star in "Burning Daylight," a dramatization of Jack London's famous novel of Alaska.

On the stage will be featured Otto Gray's famous Oklahoma Cowboy band, with Billy McElhenny, the organizer, a member of the famous Roosevelt "Rough Riders" and a personnel of musicians and singers.

Gray and his troupe come direct to the Grand, where they play Thursday, Friday and Saturday, from radio station KDKA, Pittsburgh and leading theaters there. Included in the troupe are Bill Stonehammer, fiddler; Gray and Mrs. Gray, who sing and give novelty acts; and their son, Owen Gray, the comedian of the band.

"The Racket" is at the State Monday and Tuesday. It is a thrilling tale of gang warfare and there are inside views of bootlegging and hi-jacking of gangsters in Chicago and New York, around which a very realistic story of political corruption is based.

The entire plot of the story was written as a satire of law enforcement of today. With Meighan in the cast are Marie Prevost, Louis Wolheim, George Stone, Lee Moran, "Skeets" Gallagher, and John Darrow.

Deris Kenyon is co-featured with Sills in the show, "Burning Daylight" which is at the Grand Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. The story of the famous Alaskan gold rush is made the basis of the plot, with Sills playing the part of a miner who makes his fortune rigging gold and later goes to San Francisco, where he enters society, the stock market, and makes his mark in both.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the Grand sees Norma Talmadge in "The Dove," "The Yellow Lily"

with Billie Dove, is at the State Wednesday and Thursday. Karl Dane and George K. Arthur, the comedy duo, are at the State Friday and Saturday in "Detectives."

"The Dove" is a quick-action narrative set in the lands south of the equator where gambling dens and crime thrive 24 hours of the day. Noah Berry, Miss Talmadge, Gilbert Roland, and Eddie Burden are the leading characters in the action which centers around Miss Talmadge's attempts, as a virtuous dance girl, to save the life of her young American caballero, Rowland, and her own honor.

Hungarian court life, with Billie Dove as its queen, forms the setting for "The Yellow Lily." The story deals with Hungarian customs, with Miss Dove in an exciting love duel with maidens of her country for the man she loves, Clive Brook.

Karl Dane is the house detective of a smart hotel; George Arthur is a bellhop in "Detectives." To run that pair into such a situation in a film means only one thing—comedy, and plenty of action. Dane and Arthur combine in an effort to win a reward offered for the return of famous jewels, but part on the entrance of the heroine, Marjorie Day, when both declare their love for her.

It is an exciting comedy, at the State Friday and Saturday. The complete program for the week follows:

TODAY

GRAND—"None But the Brave," Comedy and "Melting Millions," STATE—"Chinatown Charlie," Fables and comedy, "Sweeties."

STATE

Monday and Tuesday—"The Racket," Pathe News and comedy. Wednesday and Thursday—"The Yellow Lily," comedy "Scrambled Weddings" and Pathe News. Friday and Saturday—"Detectives," comedy and Fables.

GRAND

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday—"The Dove," Comedy, "Standing Pat." Thursday, Friday and Saturday—"Burning Daylight," "Melting Millions" and comedy. On the stage, Otto Gray's Oklahoma Cowboy band.

THE GUMPS—JUST A SONG AT TWILIGHT

HOME-MAKING HELPS

By Wanda Barton

Unusual Bohemian Dishes

The city of San Francisco has long been famous for its cookery. The chefs of the world's greatest have at various times sojourned there and left the impress of their science on the eating places. Excellent present day chefs have continued the good work until all parts of the world have heard of the cookery and atmosphere created in the gastronomic centers of the so-called "good gray city!" Recipes for some of the far-famed dishes selected at random should be of interest to the adventure loving home cook.

Spanish Eggs

(Senora Benicia Vallejo's Recipe)

Empty a can of tomatoes into a frying pan and add to them three minced peppers, and an onion sliced very thin. Add a few dry crumbs for thickening, a lump of butter, pepper, salt and a teaspoonful of sugar, cook gently until slightly thickened then break carefully six eggs on top. Baste the eggs with the tomato juice and when set slip onto a hot dish. Garnish with stuffed olives and toast sippets.

Spanish Steak

(Mrs. Vallejo's Recipe)

Cut a two and a half pound top sirloin steak into serving pieces and roll them in flour. With a wooden mallet beat the flour into the meat then lay the pieces into a hot frying pan with olive oil enough to thinly cover the bottom and fry carefully, turning often. In another pan fry three thinly sliced onions and three thinly sliced peppers in a little oil. When the steak is done tip the oil to one side of the pan and just cover the steak with hot water, add the onions and peppers, season with pepper and salt, cover and simmer gently for 15 minutes, then serve. Garnish with rice croquettes and watercress.

Chicken in the Shell

Put a carefully prepared young chicken into a kettle with a quart of water, a slice of bacon, a sliced onion, half a bay leaf, a few cloves, a few sprays of celery and a blade of mace. Simmer, covered, for an hour then lift the chicken and remove the meat from the bones discarding the skin. Dice the meat.

Melt together in a saucepan a tablespoonful each of butter and flour, cook two minutes then add a half pint of cream. Stir until the sauce is smooth and is thickened then add a tablespoonful of sliced truffles, two dozen fresh mushrooms chopped fine, pepper, salt, a teaspoonful of sugar, a teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce, then the chicken. Let stand until hot then break in the yolks of two fresh eggs, cook two minutes gently, then stir in a wine-glass of sherry jelly. Serve in buttered baked shells that have been heated.

Shrimp Creole

Take three tumbler of large shrimp, drain, then clean them, but leave them whole. Into a small saucepan put two tablespoonfuls each of butter and flour and cook two minutes until blended then add a half pint of cream. When thick and smooth, add two tablespoonfuls of tomato catsup to color, a wine glass of sherry jelly, pepper, salt, a teaspoonful of sugar, a heaping spoonful of paprika. Remove from the fire and stir in the shrimp, sprinkle with chopped parsley and serve garnished with toast sippets and parsley on a hot dish.

one length of material for the whole creation is a feat worth writing about. One of the most striking of these one-piece models comes in white crepe with bands of yellow, red and black incrusting upon it in the fold-over top which reminds one a bit of the old Greek tunic. Below this comes expert draping which produces the slender girdle effect, the skirt falling in a soft fold at the left side. The sleeves with three little bands of color at the cuff are really the only separate pieces of the frock.

Nicole Groult is now making a lovely one-piece creation in supple red crepe. There are varied pieces that wind about the figure and drape into long separate points giving the frock both chic and shape. One cannot tell where they begin or end but they come from one long length of fabric. The side effect is a veritable problem in solid geometry which, however, does not prevent it from being extremely chic.

All of these one-piece gowns are simplicity personified. Cut and material are paramount. Trimming is nil. One in the new jersey tricot with silver or gold threads is charming for sports wear because there is no trimming to interfere.

London Birthrate Falls Alarmingly Reports Disclose

London, Aug. 11.—London is becoming a place of fewer children. The London county council's annual health report has just disclosed that the birthrate has fallen continuously since 1921, and although the population has remained at about four-and-a-half millions, the proportion of children under 15 years of age has fallen from 30 per cent in 1901 to 26 per cent in 1921—the last census.

"Assuming," says the report, "that the present decrease, both of birth and infant mortality, to continue until after the next census, the children under 15 years of age will then form less than 20 per cent of the total population."

The births during 1927 numbered 73,263, compared with 78,825 in the preceding year. In the last quarter of 1927, the births fell below the previous lowest recorded for this quarter.

The decrease in the number of births in London since 1921 has averaged about 4,000 annually. In 1901, when the population was about the same, the births exceeded those of last year by 57,829.

Modern Appliances and Leisure

Russell Burns asked
in his ad. one day,
What a man does
With all the time,
That is saved by using
Labor-saving appliances?
And we wonder, too!
But when we give
The matter thought,
We come to think
That the thing achieved
By appliances
Called Labor-Saving,
Is not to give
Us time to loaf—
But to give us time
To accomplish more
For others' good,
And our pleasure, too,
And to save our strength
For the many tasks
That we are called Upon to do.
So when we suggest
That you install
A Laundry Tub
So that the wife
Can do her work
Much easier,
We know full well
That she will still
Have enough to do
But maybe she
Can do some things
She'd like to do
Better than slave
At her laundry work.
And another thing
That helps a lot
On a real hot day—
An Electric Fan
To keep you cool.
We have them here
And the price is right.

FRENCH WOMEN
OPEN CAMPAIGN
TO GET VOTESPicketing Revived While Leaders Seek To Get
Feminist Rights

Paris, Aug. 11.—French feminists are taking up arms and really beginning to fight seriously for their vote. Picketing by suffragettes which almost seems to have passed into history now that the English and American women have obtained what the wanted has been revived by their Latin cousins and caused not a little excitement with the French gendarmes.

Up until the present time, very discreet, lady-like tactics have been used by French women—with few results. Led by Madame Verone, well-known woman divorce lawyer at the Paris courts, a number of the women have lately been walking the streets about the senate building carrying such signs as, "Who votes not, counts not." "No votes, no taxes" and "Women wish to vote but the senate does not like it."

The senate is the stumbling block for the French suffragettes. The younger members of the house representatives see no reason why the women should not go to the polls. The venerable senators, many of them in the seventies, do not approve and still believe that woman's place is in the home.

"Have these senators realized that they wish to make us inferior to the negroes themselves, since negroes vote in English colonies," asks the well-known Duchesse d'Uzes, master of stag-hounds and the organizer of the Woman's Automobile club and many other feminine activities. "The real reason we are prevented from voting is the fear of these honorable gentlemen to see us interested in something besides politics."

Madame Verone gives figures and quotes provincial papers to show that French women, contrary to the general opinion are really much interested in obtaining the vote and declares that they will not end their battle until the victory is won.

Emerging from the hottest weather in 17 years Paris discovered three things:

(1) the water supply for the suburbs is insufficient.

(2) proprietors of boulevard cafes may refuse to serve a customer on the terrace if he is in shirt sleeves.

(3) policemen refuse to wear white drill trousers.

As the mercury went to 97 degrees Fahrenheit, suburban faucesses went dry. Paris itself consumed 650,000 cubic meters of water, or 10,000 cubic meters more than on any previous day in the history of modern plumbing.

A tourist informed a French editor that he was refused refreshments when he appeared coatless on a cafe terrace. "And I was wearing a silk shirt," reported the tourist.

Why the policemen refused to wear white drill trousers remains a mystery. It probably will go down as the French equivalent to the American conundrum: "Why does the fireman wear red suspenders?"

One policeman who did not wear white trousers suffered a sunstroke. He was Patrolman Leclercq, traffic officer and owner of the largest set of whiskers in Paris. He recovered and is again directing traffic and still sporting his whiskers.

PROMOTE DEPUTY SHERIFF

Plane Catches Train
On Pency On Way
East to New York

What is probably the first instance of the transfer of passengers from airplane to train in transit, has just been reported from the St. Louis division of the Pennsylvania railroad.

The incident serves to illustrate new possibilities in the joint use of air and rail routes for speedy long distance trips, especially under emergency conditions.

As train No. 154, the "Gotham Limited," was passing Smithboro, Ill., the engineer, Guy Hickman, observed a large passenger airplane flying low beside the right of way, and parallel to his train. He saw that those in the plane were waving to him. The plane then drew ahead and passed him at high speed.

When the train reached the station at Effingham, Ill., the plane was in a field nearby. The pilot, who was waiting on the platform of the station, shook hands with the engineer and said "I have brought you two women passengers for New York." He stated they had left Tulsa, Okla., at 1 p. m. that day for the specific purpose of connecting at Effingham with the "Gotham Limited."

The pilot further explained that in passing Smithboro, he had flown low in order to verify the name on the rear of the train and be sure it was the one his passengers expected to board.

Bugs Revel In Heat
As Gardeners Wilt

Midsummer heat has a decidedly cooling effect on one thing at least—enthusiasm on the part of the amateur gardener. Conversely, as the temperature amounts, so does the ardor of the bugs which are interested in flowers.

"Some of the worst insect enemies of the garden are doing their utmost just at the time when the gardener wants to take a rest," says Victor H. Ries, extension floriculturist at Ohio State university. "As the season advances the real gardener must become more vigilant and active instead of less so." The blister beetle, the tarnished plant bug and the red spider are among the most vigorous enemies of plants during July and August.

The blister beetle, a black, hard-shelled insect about half an inch long, eats up the plants and escapes before the average person can get in its work on him. The tarnished plant bug is particularly active on tulips, Okla., at 1 p. m. that day for the specific purpose of connecting at Effingham with the "Gotham Limited."

The pilot further explained that in passing Smithboro, he rum powder. Another antidote for the two bugs mentioned is dusting with sodium fluosilicate. Nicotine oleate is also recommended. Both insects mentioned are active and numerous, and will require regular repeated applications of spray.

The red spider, a semi-microscopic mite, infests many evergreens as well as the common garden phlox. It may be controlled by dusting with powdered sulphur or spraying with a miscible oil, which is greatly diluted when used as a summer spray.

Washington — The dollar bill, whose buying power is said to be only two-thirds that of pre-war days, actually last only a third as long. Bills change hands so fast these days that they become ragged in six months where once they were good for 20 months. The government has to print about a billion new $1 bills yearly to keep its currency intact at a cost of about $4,000,000.
